Bing Bong's Emotion Game

What you will need:

- Card stock paper
- Scissors
- Tape or glue
- 4 players
- Time keeper

How to play the game:

At least 4 players are needed to play this game. Each turn will have a “giver” and a “guesser”.

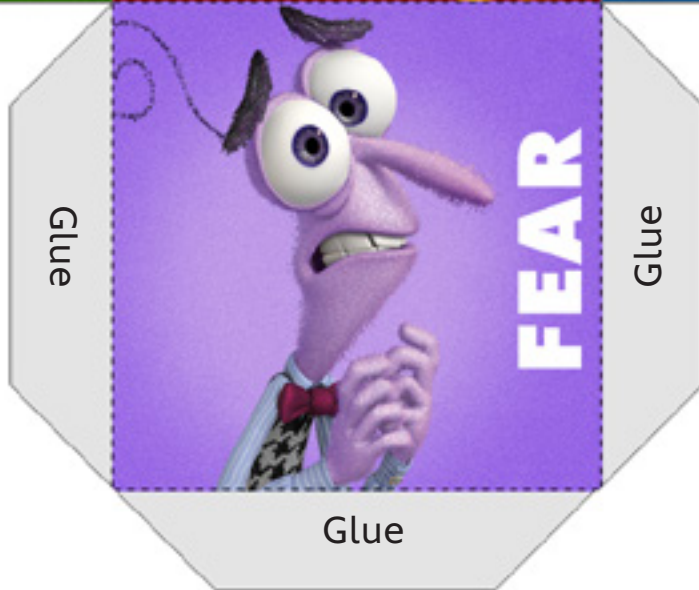

Place the cards with the character name facing down. The giver rolls the emotion cube to designate the emotion played. The giver selects a card and keeps the character secret from the guesser. The giver acts out BOTH the emotion AND the character on the card at the same time! The team that gets the most correct answers within the time limit at the end of the game wins!

Hint: To make the game more challenging, hide the emotion cube from the guesser.

Game cube and playing cards instructions:

1. Print on heavy or card stock paper then, cut along solid black lines. Kids, have a grown-up help you with the scissors.
2. Fold cube and cards along dashed lines.
3. Glue or tape tabs to form the game cube.
4. Glue or tape the front to the back of each card.
